

Shakespeare & Co presents
TRAVEL IN WORDS: A four-day literary celebration
 15th–18th June 2006 Park R n  Viviani 75005 Paris

Time	Thursday 15 June	Friday 16 June	Saturday 17 June	Sunday 18 June
10:00		Walking Tour on James Joyce's Bohemian Paris with Noel Riley-Fitch		Walking Tour with Thirza Vallois on Three Hundred Years of Caf� Life in Paris
11:00		Thirza Vallois on Paris a writers' haven	Colin Thubron on Shadow of the Silk Road	Travel by Train writing competition results
12:00		Bloomsday Celebration with performances by Maria D'Arcy and Albert Sonnerfeld	Ruth Padel on Writing the Jungle	Anthony Sattin on The 18 th Century Race to Discover Timbuktu and the Rivalry between English and French Explorers
13:00	Shusha Guppy on The Blindfold Horse and Three Journeys in the Levant	Lizzie Speller on Bandits, Brothels and Tacky Souvenirs	Barnaby Rogerson on Publishing Travel Writing	Janine di Giovanni on The Place at the End of The World
14:00	Charles Glass on The Tribes Triumphant and The Northern Front a diary from Iraq	Brigid Keenan on Diplomatic Baggage and Celia Brayfield on Deep France with Chip Martin	Jason Elliot on Mirrors of the Unseen: Journeys in Iran	Travels in the Muslim World Anthony Sattin, Jason Elliot, Shusha Guppy, Barnaby Rogerson and William Dalrymple
15.30	Tony Hawks on A Piano in the Pyrenees	Nick Middleton on Extremes along the Silk Road	Tim Parks on Travelling and Settling, Different Visions of the Same Country	Andrei Makine reading and in discussion with translator Geoffrey Strachen (bilingual French/English event)
17:00	Rory Maclean on Magic Bus: On the Hippy Trail from Istanbul to India	Barry Lopez on Resistance and Resistance in nature writing	The Frontiers of Fact: Fiction and Non-fiction in Travel Writing Ian Jack, Geoff Dyer, Tim Parks and Dervla Murphy	Jon Ronson on Them: Adventures with Extremists

18:30	Andrew Eames on The 8.55 to Baghdad	Stephen Clarke on Merde Actually	William Dalrymple	Geoff Dyer on Travel Writing: A Form of Goodbye
20:00	Drinks reception at Shakespeare & Co	Lucinda Holdforth on True Pleasures: A Memoir of Women in Paris over wine and hors d'œuvres à la Guy Savoy at Atelier Maître Albert	Cocktail Party	Cocktail party